STATE NEWS

Andover.—Kila Thorpa, a girl sixteen night and nine years of age, disappeared from her home 133 Main Street, Andover, at 8 o'clock, Thursday evening, and has not since been heard from. Word was sent with the police, Tuesday night, when she was last seen.

did not return. A thorough search high and low, in every section of the two streets has been made, and the child was still unaccounted up to Friday night. Her parents are nearly crazed. She has disappeared several times before. She has been found tucked away in a out-of-the-way place, sleeping under the eaves, even in the harbor. A wretched member of the police found the child, on one of the old days of last winter, rolled up in a ball under a doorstep nearly dead from exposure.

Cumberbund.

The Press says that the Portland Police arrested, Saturday, Tom Sullivan, on charge of theft. Various things were found on him which are supposed to belong to somebody else.

The Sunday Times says as Albin Hawkes and Misses Rosa Leighton and Minnie Knight, of Westbrook, were riding last Sunday, their carriage was cut into by another team, and the occupants were thrown out. Miss Leighton had an arm broken, and Miss Knight received severe injuries upon her face, beside breaking her glass.

Franklin.

The Phonograph says an aged farmer living out of town about three miles, came to Franklin, with one day's work and after waiting to some business affairs, returned to his team and drove toward home. He had nearly reached his house when he thought of his better half and turned back and got her.

On Sat. night, while working a drill at Bryn Mawr, W. J. Hay, a brother of the deceased, was struck on the head by a piece of iron, which was flying about an old chaise, using water for the purpose of keeping the iron from becoming so hot as to burn the workmen. Supposing they had got through the iron stamping, they attempted to withdraw the drill, when the chaise exploded, driving the powder in the face of Mr. Hay, and striking him on the forehead with the eye of Mr. Bryant, and inflicting a deep wound in the upper lip, besides various wounds and bruises in the limbs. The injuries are seriously injured.

Inspector
Post Office Inspector Bigelow has just finished his annual inspection of the first and second class post offices in this State and the District of Columbia. In the account of the Augusta post office only lacked fifteen cents of being class.

Mr. A. E. Knight, a resident of Bolton, Mass., lost a horse valued at $125, on the 11th, supposed from the effects of poison administered by some unknown person who broke into his stable. A pane of glass in the stable window was broken, the floor then unfastened and an entrance thus effected. This is the second horse Mr. Knight has lost in this manner.

Knox.

The house of Thomas Colson, in South Thomaston, caught fire Saturday by reason of burning brush near the house. The fire department of Thomaston was turned out, and the fire was soon extinguished with little damage.

An exchange says Tuesday afternoon, a Rockland undertaker was driving up Park street in a hearse with a coffin on his wagon. He noticed that the coffin was coming on. He arranged it, but almost immediately on turning around, found the coffin placed. He again looked at it and dropped it, but in a few moments he was startled by a thundering explosion, and turned round to find the coffin completely off, and inside lay the body of a man. The undertaker thought he must be a dressmaker, but stopped and investigated.
 He found the occupant of the box sat up and demanded to be carried home. He was summarily buried, grumbling considerably while being disturbed, and seeming to regard his selection of a vehicle as a most natural and proper thing. Had he not kicked the coffin off the box, he would have had a cover over the top. For the undertaker's dragon had bopped her for a few moments on Main street, while the driver made a call, and when he was inside some mad wags had indicated why the wagon had been looking in the room when it was while telling him himself to be placed in the box, telling him that he would be sent home.

this Maryland horse owner (Tristram) to take care of the residence of George Hayford, in Canton, Sunday, and on over the Staples Hill into Hartford, a distance of 14 miles. In going down the hill the road is very narrow, and the run very fast, and was met by David William F. Terry and wife who by good luck escaped collision. The horse was captured by John O. Robinson's dog and taken injured. The carriage was damaged and broken.

Real Estate.
The Herald says M. B. Shaw, Esq., of Greenville, in 1880, bought 42 square miles or 27,000 acres of timber lands on the Dead River region about half way between Edgecamp and Lake Umbagog. He built four camps and a dam at Chain of Ponds, a dam on the north branch of Dead River. He has already cut seven and one-half million feet of lumber.

Accident.
 A fire, Saturday, destroyed the roof of the engine house at the Portland and Bangor factory, in Richmond. The fire originated from defective brick work about the boiler, and in order to get at it, it was necessary to remove part of the brick-work, and the damage will not be great.

The Times says there is a lady in Bath who about thirty years ago and in her early life she has been struck by lightning twice; but she has never been in what it was struck by robbers once; has been apparently drowned twice, abducted twice, and met with numerous accidents with horses. She still sells the late horse story. In addition to the above troubles she, has
